

2024/2025 Faculty/Staff Membership Summary

Introduction

Located in the foothills above the Stanford University campus, the Stanford Golf Course is consistently rated one of the finest courses in the world. The course is open to Stanford constituents (students, faculty/staff, and alumni) and members and their guests. Throughout the years, Stanford has hosted many intercollegiate and non-collegiate events, including U.S. Open Qualifying, Women's NCAA Championships, NCAA Regionals, Pac-12 Championships and the USGA Junior Amateur Qualifying.

One of approximately 30 college courses in the country, Stanford Golf Course opened in 1930 and was designed by famed architects George C. Thomas and Billy Bell Jr. The firm of Robert Trent Jones II completed minor remodeling work during the 80s and 90s. The firm of John Harbottle III remodeled greens and bunkers in 1994. In 2004, the firm of Knott Brooks Linn completed a redesign of the third and fourth holes. In 2018, all bunkers were rebuilt and several holes were modified.

As current or retired Faculty/Staff of the University, you may join the Stanford Golf Course as a member at a discounted annual rate allowing you the benefits below:
